Approved For Release 2009/02/05: CIA-RDP94B00280R001200130002-0

875

continuing study of their need to classify, and if such need is found to exist, to make such fact known to the proper authority.

*Recommendation No. 8.—The Commission recommends that the present restriction light is the present restriction for the state of the sta tion limiting original defense classification authority to agency heads in certain

Recommendation No. 8.—The Commission recommends that the present restriction limiting original defense classification authority to agency heads in certain agencies should remain as at present subject to the proviso that, in the event of the incapacity or necessary absence of the agency head, the individual acting in his stead may be creise the classification authority.

Recommendation No. 9.—The Commission recommends that every effort should be made in each agency to reduce the number of employees having the authority to classify or to recommended classification.

Recommendation No. 10.—The Commission recommends that the executive agencies give particular attention to the requirements for tallest discommendation with national security, of scientific information and for fullest access, consistent with national security and the need to know to such information by scientists or others who may request such information or access.

Recommendation No. 11.—The Commission recommends that all departments and agencies having original authority to classification training programs for all personnel who originate or havi responsibility for material which will require application of defense information elassification.

Recommendation No. 12.—The Commission recommends that the executive departments and agencies review, in consultation with industry, their provisions for training in all aspects of document classification as they relate to industrial contractors, changing them where found accessivy.

Recommendation No. 13.—The Commission recommends establishment of the Central Security Office having review and advisory functions with respect to the Federal document classification program and to make recommendations for its improvement as needed.

Recommendation No. 15.—The Commission recommends no specific legislation for miform penal as for violation of classification statuts and agency regulation (sic.) at this time.

Recommendation No. 15 .- The Commission recommends that notation No. 15.—The Commission recommends that except for the advisory functions of the Central Security Office which require the document classification program should be embedded in an review am legislatia Execut annendation No. 16.—The Commission recommends the adoption sions of Executive Order 10501 except as changed and modified by the foregoing recommendations.

APPENDIX III

Model National Defense Information Protection Legislation

(Prepared by the (Wright) Commission on Government Security, June 21, 1957)

A BILL. To amend title 18, United States Code, to prohibit the unauthorized disclosure of certain information critically affecting national defense

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That (a) chapter 37 of title 18 of the United State: Code (relating to espionage and censorship) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new section: "$ 799. Unanthorized disclosure of certain information affecting national defense "(a) Whenever any information shall have been classified in conformity with the provisions of any Executive order promulgated by the President, as 'top secret', 'atomic top secret', 'secret', or 'atomic secret', it is unlawful for any person who has obtained such information to communicate any part thereof to any person who is not authorized by law, Executive order, or regulations promulgated pursuant to law or any Executive order, to receive such information. No communication of any such information made by any officer, employee, or member of any department, agency, or armed force of the United States, or any efficer or employee of any corporation the stock of which is owned in whole or in major part by the United States or any department or agency thereof, pursuant to authorization granted by the head of such department, agency, armed force, or corporation, to any member of the Congress, any joint committee of the Congress, any committee or subcommittee of the Senate or the House of Representatives, or

Defense trengthenhit to unand subld be an lucate the l of 'clear-husiness.

published classified tallations.

rs of the rough the reviewed, ences beof inforpress. ise of inthe press fled often Of course ortheless.

this re-

SCURTTY

ustion or ut to the nt classiternment

e criteria Informaas noted

n of the erials. he percontracts ito apply Executive wing this agencies aintain a

876

any member of the staff of any such committee or subcommittee, shall be unlawful

"(b) Whoever, having obtained in any manner or by any means any information under this section. so classified, willfully communicates any part of such information in any manner or by any means to any person not authorized as prescribed by subsection (a) to receive such information, with knowledge or reason to believe that such information is so classified and that such person is not so authorized to receive such information, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

"(e) For the purposes of this section—
"(1) the term 'top secret' or 'atomic top secret' means any information
"(1) the term 'top secret' or 'atomic top secret' means any information in the secret is secret in the secret in th affecting the national defense of the United States in such degree that its unauthorized disclosure could result in exceptionally grave damage to the

"(2) the term 'secret' or 'atomic secret' means any information affecting the national defense of the United States in such degree that its unauthorized disclosure could result in serious damage to the Nation."

(b) The analysis of such chapter is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new item:

"799. Unauthorized disclosure of certain information affecting national defense"

APPENDIX IV

CURRENT GOVERNMENT INFORMATION SECURITY CLASSIFICATION AND Declassification Directives

EXECUTIVE ORDERS Nos. 11652 AND 11714

THE WHITE HOUSE, Murch

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 11652

DECLASSIFICATION OF NATIONAL SECURITY INFORMATION CLASSIFICATION AND AND MATERIAL

The interests of the United States and its citizens are lest served by making information regarding the afficies of Government readily available to the public. This concept of an informed chezency is reflected in the Freedom of Information Act and in the current public information policies of the executive branch. Within the Federal Government fliere is some obtain information and material which, because it hears directly on the effectiveness of our national defense and the conduct of our foreign relations, bust be subject to some constraints for the security of our Nation and the safety of our people and our affice. To protect against actions hostile to the United States, of both an overt and covert mature, it is essential that such official information and material be given only limited dissemination.

dissemination.

This official information or material, referred to as classified information or material in this order, is expressly exempted from public disclosure by section 552(b)(1) of title 5, United States Code, Wrongfin disclosure of such information or material is recognized in the Federal Criminal Code as providing a basis for programation.

prosecution.

To insure that such information and material is protected, but only to the extent and for such period as is necessary, this order identifies the information to be protected, prescribes classification, downgrading, declassification, and safeguarding procedures to be followed, and establishes a monitoring system to insure its effectiveness:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the United States, it is hereby ordered:

SECTION 1. SECURITY CLASSIFICATION CATEGORIES

held information or material which requires protection against manthorized office in the interest of the national defense or foreign relations of the United & (hereinafter collectively termed "national security") shall be christical in of three categories, namely, "Top Secret," "Secret," or "Confidential," depehú 2076 prote vides ۸. 941 - 11 38 % rot.id secul agair affer 04° 31 of se cat d $-\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{4}(p)^{-1}$ rin' ·· × · Soliit Seri the r 106.5 1igen or no 11/11 expes 194 shall Caller 1:410 20033 a linds

A : G V

Thept σť

33.05 desiz

:11 order 7.1 ande